Musicians Called to Serve

A Handbook for the Selection, Employment, and Ministry of Church Musicians

An essential resource for rectors, parish committees, church musicians, and those conducting musical ministry services. Thoroughly revised and greatly expanded, this practical and informative Handbook will help you:

- Understand the church musician's work and ministry
- Estimate the true demands of a musician's work
- Prepare an accurate and useful job description
- Conduct an effective search process—church looking for musician, or musician looking for church
- Determine a fair compensation package
- Evaluate applications (which include ECUSA consent and General Convention resolutions on lay employment in The Episcopal Church, thoughts on making an employment agreement, sample models of written employment agreements)

Other publications available through The Association of Anglican Musicians:

- Careful and Clever: Institutional Control in Ministry
- A History of Music in the Episcopal Church by Carol Cross and William Swartz
- Bibliography of United Resources for the Church Musician
- A Catalogue of Antiphons and Verses for the Bookings of the Lectionary Years A, B, and C by William Swartz*

* A Catalogue of Antiphons and Verses for the Bookings of Lectionary Years A, B, and C may be ordered directly through the Anglican Musicians' Foundation, c/o The Rev. Thomas McCaslin, Parish Episcopal Church of Westmoreland, Westmoreland, NY 13857.
